

IoD Guernsey Branch Chair Advert

---

Introduction

The Institute of Directors (IoD) is at the forefront of British business and supporting business across the globe. The Institute champions entrepreneurial activity and good governance, supporting circa 20,000 business leaders in the private, public and third sectors across all regions of the UK and beyond. The last few years have been like no other; directors, boards and organisations have had their business resilience tested. Amid unique challenges, the IoD has a crucial role to play ensuring directors are fully equipped to lead their businesses faced by the current economic challenges, and as they strive to succeed in a dynamic and globally connected world.

We are seeking a new chair to lead our 'IoD Guernsey' branch.

This branch is currently made up of 670 members and is also supported by IoD international employees and IoD Central Shared Services.

This challenging and rewarding role will see the successful candidate chairing and supporting the branch committee which will comprise of a vice chair and a team of ambassadors. The committee is very active within our membership, the local community and with enterprises.

The role also involves working with neighbouring IoD International franchises & branches, providing cohesive and consistent support and services to the IoD membership.

The successful candidate will have a demonstrable track record as a leader, with established business interests and a strong network of contacts within Guernsey.

You will be a strong advocate for good governance and responsible business practices amongst directors, with a desire to give back to the community.

The successful candidate will have a strong understanding of the Bailiwick's business economy and will be expected to promote the IoD among the local business community, public sector and policy makers to help grow the IoD membership and to deliver our Royal Charter.

This is an exciting time for the IoD as it enters a new chapter in its long and esteemed history. We have a new value proposition and member proposition which remains true to our core belief that Better Directors build a Better World.

The Institute of Directors is an equal opportunities organisation and is committed to promoting equality and diversity. Applications are encouraged from all backgrounds, geographies and sections of the community. This role is unremunerated.

Questions about the role

To find out more about the role and discuss your questions, please email Wendy Dorey, IoD Guernsey Chair chair.guernsey@iod.net or Jayne Miller, International Commercial Relationship Manager on iodinternational@iod.com

Deadline for applications

Applications must be emailed by close of business Friday 20th January, 2023

How to apply

Please email Jayne Miller on iodinternational@iod.com outlining how you feel your skills and experience are aligned with the Chair role. Please also attach your CV.

The selection process will be conducted by our international & commercial team who will be in touch with you following your application.

The International and Commercial team will contact the shortlisted applicants to arrange a virtual interview, dates to be confirmed and the recommended candidate will be informed during the same week.

Recommendations to the IoD Board will be sent for ratification.

This is a two-year term expected to start from mid-February 2023.

This role is unremunerated.

Upon appointment

Upon successful ratification of appointment there will be a full induction period during which the following key activities will take place:

- Introduction to all branch committee, ambassadors, branch chairs and regional team
- Appointment shared in media and via social media platforms
- Introduction to counterparts in other IoD regions
- Introduction to the director general and executive team
- Handover and induction sessions
- Regional strategy day and the regional committee meetings